Objective and Background

With the rapid expansion of Islamic Banking Industry, the demand of certified as well as experienced Shariah Scholars has been increased manifold and is expected to further expand in days to come. The need was sensed to enhance capacity of Shariah Scholars for grooming them to the level where they could meet the skills necessary for key positions in IBIs. While considering the requirement, NIBAF on the direction of State Bank of Pakistan offered special training program during first quarter of 2019. Keeping in view the success of the program and demand from IBIs to launch another iteration of the same program, NIBAF is proudly offer the 2nd training program. The course objectives include dissemination of knowledge on finance, banking, accounting, economic management, and Shariah Accounting and Governance Standards to those who are well-versed with Shariah especially on Muamlat but lack banking regulations and practices.

Course Features and Contents:

The course comprises 10 modules having duration of 2 days each. The program would be offered in three phases. 3 modules in first two phases and 4 modules would be covered during third and last phase.
